

ECONOMY DRIVE AGAINST NAVAL BILL DEFEATED

Senate Adopts Amendments for Increase Recommended by Committee.

(Continued from Page One)

for the decision for a personnel at 120,000 men.

Sen. Lenroot, republican, Wisconsin, led the battle Tuesday against the committee increases and against the committee republicans that the country will not stand for them. He was joined by Sen. Hitchcock, democrat, Nebraska, who anticipated that he would vote against the bill if the committee increases should be substantially sustained. Sen. Swanson, of Virginia, ranking democrat on the naval committee, however, supported the committee program, declaring that with the aviation program other programs of the navy, 120,000 men were needed. Sen. Underwood, of Alabama, democrat leader, who voted for the 120,000 personnel, made a lengthy address advocating international disarmament, but opposed disarmament by the United States in the absence of an agreement with other powers.

Says Harding Misquoted.

In attacking what he termed the "extravagance" of the bill, Sen. Lenroot charged that press reports of President Harding's speech regarding naval defense Monday had been distorted "deliberately and inexcusably." He said that the president had been misquoted with respect to his statement that the nation should "go powerful in righteousness that no power will dare to invoke its wrath."

Sen. Lenroot offered an amendment to prohibit further payment of bonuses to enlisted men for re-enlistment, but it was defeated without a record vote. Sen. Pendergast, republican, Washington, in charge of the bill, said the Lenroot amendment would result in saving only $2,000,000 and would discourage re-enlistment of trained men who also regard the bonus as a recognition of service.

REAL ESTATE MEN HEAR ARNOLD TALK

Director of Salesmanship School Addresses Club at Weekly Luncheon.

Ferry B. Arnold, director of classes in the Knox School of Salesmanship gave an interesting talk before the local Board of Realtors Tuesday afternoon, at their regular weekly meeting in the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Arnold's talk consisted chiefly of the art of salesmanship from the realtors point of view. He said that real estate field was the greatest field of all in which to practice the art of salesmanship. He went on to show that in real estate a realtor's purpose was to show his prospect his needs, then proceed to fulfill them. Mr. Arnold was accompanied by D. D. Donovan who will be in South Bend for some time promoting interest in the Knox school.

It was voted that E. J. Clark should take charge of the Realtors' Exchange, which will pay as an additional attraction at all Realtor Indoor Baseball games.

CONGRESS MAY MAKE INQUIRY IN BORDER WAR

(Continued from Page One)

tween West Virginia and Kentucky that "for a long period in the past in the coal fields of West Virginia has been a disturbed condition which has led to turbulence and bloodshed," and that these conditions are a "menace to orderly domestic government and general safety and welfare of the people living in the affected territory."

HATFIELD FURNISHES BAIL

By Associated Press.

WILLIAMSON, Va., May 24.—Hatfield, former chief of police of Matamoras, Va., appeared at the sheriff's office here Tuesday and furnished bail for his appearance in court to answer to a charge of assault. He is charged with assaulting P. J. Smith, superintendent of the Stone Mountain Coal corporation at Matamoras.

Hatfield, accompanied on the trip from Matamoras by Deputy Sheriff Medley Crum, came to Williamson, at the instigation of Sheriff A. C. Pison. He said that he had come voluntarily when he was informed that a warrant had been issued for his arrest.

Hatfield told Sheriff Pison that he had furnished bond for his appearance on the same charge before a magistrate at Matamoras, Va., and that he was willing to give bond here if he would be released from it after the hearing at the mining village.

Not Recognized.

It was the first time since the county was declared under martial law by Gov. Morgan that Hatfield had been in Williamson.

Many persons were at the railroad station when the Matamoras train arrived, but Hatfield succeeded in reaching the court house before he was recognized.

Fire, believed by the authorities to have been the work of incendiaries, destroyed the store of the Lynn Coal and Coke corporation at Lynn, Va., Tuesday. The loss was estimated at from $10,000 to $15,000, officials of the Williamson Coal operators' association said. The fire was the only unwarmed accident reported from the trouble zone along the West Virginia-Kentucky border.

Verde Denies Guilt.

Joseph Verde, 612 1/2 Crescent ave., arraigned in city court Tuesday morning before Judge Gilmer, on charges of provocation and drunkenness, pleaded not guilty to both counts. His case was set for May 28.

Redecorate Cafeteria.

The cafeteria of the Y. W. C. A. will be closed beginning Wednesday, May 25, in order to redecorate the rooms. It will reopen Tuesday morning, May 31.

UNIQUE GIFTS INCLUDED IN GROWING LIST

Rose Offers Bedroom Suite to Couple if Married in Display Window.

(Continued from Page One)

of Sailor Bros. store between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon on June 1st. Mr. Rose explains that the ceremony must be performed by a minister and must be a bonafide marriage in every way. He further insists that he will have to see the marriage license before he instructs his men to pack up the bedroom suite.

Chance For All.

Super-intelligence is also to prove a decided asset in winning some of the prizes on offer in the Tuesday, A. R. Meyer gift, the proprietor of the Newman store will give a prize of $20 in merchandise to the June 1st bride who can answer Thomas Edison's now famous questionnaire correctly. Mr. Meyer also announced an additional prize of $10 in trade to the youngest bride on that day; $10 in trade to the oldest bride, and $10 in trade to the prettiest.

Thomas H. Brandon, of the Brandon-Durrell co., is the donor of the "extravagance" of the bill, Sen. Lenroot charged that press reports of President Harding's speech regarding naval defense Monday had been distorted "deliberately and inexcusably." He said that the president had been misquoted with respect to his statement that the nation should "go powerful in righteousness that no power will dare to invoke its wrath."

Dancing Tickets, Too.

Among the latest gifts to be announced is that of Cluette. This company will present a Rogers Home Making silver set of 26 pieces, Charles G. Gates wants the first five couples to do a lot of dancing, judging by the gift.

The first five newlywed pairs will each receive $5 worth of dancing tickets from Mr. Gates. Haugh and Harmon will knock off $50 on any house they are able to sell to a couple married in June. The firm of Leinbach, Humphrey and Torrey will give the same discount on the lots they sell the newlyweds. William Hays offers a $100 discount on a modern 5 room house to help the June brides.

A fireless cooker, valued at $25.50 is a substantial gift given out Tuesday afternoon by the Heller Furniture co. A "fireless" insurance policy is the gift of L. E. Greenan agency. At least Mr. Greenan probably hopes that it will prove fireless. Mr. Greenan offers a $1,000 household goods fire insurance policy to the winning couple. One hundred wedding announcements will be printed free by the Hibbard Printing Co.

Will Keep Warm.

The Kay-Bee Clothing co., adds to the already long list of wearing apparel for the brides by presenting a hat and blouse to the winning couple. The clothing items alone amount to hundreds of dollars.

Tuesday morning John L. Worden of the Worden Realty Co., called on the local Board of Realtors Tuesday morning to every June bride who purchases a house. With his written offer was a statement signed by Cluette and Co., jewelers, who declare formally that nine South Bend couples will be given a perfect diamond ring by the Worden Realty Co. during Real Estate Week.

Arthur L. Miller will give a ton of coal to the first bride and Tom A. Hynes of the New Jersey railroad will give a round trip ticket to Detroit to the first bride and groom.

Mishawaka Merchants Enthusiastic.

Mishawaka merchants Tuesday morning were enthusiastic over the contest and expressed their willingness to assist. The list at this time is incomplete but will be published in full Wednesday afternoon.

All South Bend and Mishawaka merchants who wish to assist June Brides, should call the advertising department of the News-Times at once. The number is Main 2100. Complete information of the contest may be had as to the details. The public presentation of gifts will be made in a local theater. Let's go.

The Gift List will grow daily—watch it.

M'CLURE CHOSEN TO HEAD COUNCIL

New Officers Elected to Direct
Work of Religious Education School.

The annual meeting of the Religious Educational Conference was held in the Community Room of the Y. M. C. A. last evening. The following officers being elected to serve the coming year: Rev. Archibald McClure, First Presbyterian church, president; John L. Shafer, First Presbyterian church, vice president; L. G. Colson, Y. M. C. A. clerk; W. B. Schaefer, Grace M. E. church, treasurer.

Reports of the year's activities were read by Pres. R. L. McQuary. A budget of $5,000 was decided upon for use in the work of the Religious School of Education. This appropriation means that a program on a much larger scale than last year will become effective with the opening of the Religious School of Education next fall.

Plans were discussed for the opening of a school of this kind in Mishawaka. A special committee was appointed to investigate the prospects of such a move. The committee will visit the members of Mishawaka clergy in a hope of receiving opinions from them on this subject. More than 30 members of the council were present.

The first river tunnel constructed in America was completed in Chicago in 1868.

VOGLE MACHINE IS CLAIMED BY HANSON

Counsel for Feldman Waives
Waives Right to Hold Car Declared Stolen.

Another step in clearing up the mystery of stolen automobiles, in which it is alleged Morris Feldman, 140 W. Indiana avenue, is seriously involved, was taken Tuesday.

The Chandler seven-passenger, which it is alleged Morris Feldman, man to Joseph Vogle, Chapin street grocer, was admitted by his attorney, D. D. Nemeth, to be the property of Christopher Hanson, a business man of Chicago, who arrived in this city Tuesday with Detective Michael Vaughan, an officer of the Chicago automobile bureau.

Stole Car in Park.

Att'y. Nemeth, when Detective Vaughan offered conclusive proof that the car belonged to Hanson, waived the rights of Mr. Vogle to it and Hanson and Detective Vaughan stepped into the car without further delay and started back to the windy city.

Hanson said the car was stolen Sept. 22, when he left it parked in Grant park, Chicago. Before taking his leave he congratulated Asst. Chief Cassidy on his work in finding the owner of the car.

It was disclosed that Hanson and Detective Vaughan were in this city two weeks ago examining the car and they then declared that it was the property of Hanson and wanted to take it back with them.

Chief Cassidy refused to allow this, taking the rights of Mr. Vogle into consideration. Although the Chicago man offered admittedly conclusive proof that it belonged to Hanson, reciting the various numbers of the car, and giving a most minute description, the local officer was insistent that Mr. Vogle be given absolutely fair play. It was only after that Att'y. Nemeth unconditionally waived the rights of his client that Cassidy released the machine.

Of the 11 numbers on the machine only one was changed, according to the police. This was the motor number which originally was 73149 and which was changed to 92149 by erasing the "7" with an emery wheel and stamping in the "9."

The Essex sedan, said to have been sold by Feldman to Thomas Williams, the local plumber, was released by Mr. Williams two weeks ago after the identity of the rightful owner had been proven to him.

In the meantime Feldman remains under $10,000 bonds pending his arraignment in court, the date of which has not been set.

SOUTH BEND MEN FINED AT NILES

Arrested for Having Undersized Bluegills in Their Possession.

NILES, Mich., May 24.—John McLain, a transient thought by the police to be a hunter, broke a plate glass window in the hotel at Niles, Mich., office Saturday evening. McLain was arrested and taken to the county jail at St. Joseph, W. A. Reddick is the owner of the building.

Wilbur Ven Auker, Grant et., who submitted to an operation at University hospital at Ann Arbor for the removal of his right foot 6 inches above the ankle, is recovering. The foot was injured 20 years ago when a horse stepped upon it, but not until the present time did it give him serious trouble.

State Deputy Game Warden, Alva Leonard arrested two South Bend fishermen, Frank Peters and Alex Harvates, at Barron lake Sunday afternoon for having in their possession undersized bluegills. They were each given a fine of $10 and costs.

ANNOUNCE WINNERS OF ENDURANCE RUN

Batty Wins First Honors,
While Three Tie for Second, Third and Fourth.

Announcement of the winners in the 50-mile endurance run held Sunday, May 22, by Johnson Motor wheel owners, was made Tuesday by the committee in charge.

Roy Batty of South Bend finished first, making the ninety miles with only nine minutes against him. Jacob Dell and Joe Warwick, both of South Bend, and Leland Freeman of Mishawaka tied for the second, third and fourth places, each having a total of 15 points. E. Haven Hubbard of South Bend had a perfect score up until the last station, when he was put out of the running.

More than 40 starters entered, and all finished with very little trouble on the run. The participants enjoyed a lunch and swim at Eagle point after the run.

CHARGE LABOR LEADERS MAKE DEATH THREATS

(Continued from Page One)

Nelson, Pittsburgh contractors, had testified that he had paid the labor leaders $2,000 to settle a strike. Andrew Mellon, secretary of the treasury, is the head of the firm which was engaged in erecting the Chicago and Alton freight depot when the strike halted work.

George E. Gorman, assistant state's attorney, said the Daily Committee and the grand jury had received hundreds of letters revealing information.

"Most of them are anonymous," he added.

Asks Divorce.

Charging her husband with cruel and inhuman treatment, Laura Hyatt Tuesday brought suit for a divorce from Clyde Hyatt in superior court No. 1. They were married August 31, 1913, and separated in December, 1920. The plaintiff seeks the custody of their one child.

One of the "Orchid Beauties" with "The Sweetheart Shop," showing at the Oliver Friday and Saturday, with matinee Saturday.

MAMIE SMITH TO SING AT OLIVER

Famous Colored Singer to Bring Company to Oliver for Season's Close.

Mamie Smith, world famous colored singer, with an entire company of vaudeville stars and her celebrated jazz band, will appear as the closing bill of the season at the Oliver theater, Tuesday, May 31.

Mamie Smith has the distinction of being the first colored girl artist to attain world-wide fame as a singer and vaudeville star. She began her career as a concert singer and later appeared in light opera, many other new songs will be introduced which she will sing for records in the fall. Some of her popular hits she will sing here include "Crazy Blues," "It's Here for You," "Loving Sam From Alabama," and "Jazz Baby."

The appearance here of this celebrated troupe will mark one of the few stops to be made on a transcontinental tour which has been booked by the Standard Amusement company of New York City.

Night after night this colored star has been received by houses and at each performance she has been forced to answer countless curtain calls. Mamie Smith is said to be one of the highest paid record artists in America and with her all star review and jazz band will afford one of the best attractions to appear at the Oliver this season.

Tickets for this performance go on sale at the box office of the Oliver and at the Cope music store this morning and popular prices will prevail, seats selling from 50c to $2.50.

TO DRAW THREADS.

In doing fancy work, if you find the threads draw hard or break easily, rub a little white soap on the wrong side of the line. Even an applied with a brush will not harm the line.

USE SOAP.

If the belt on your sewing machine loosens, rub it with plain white soap and it will help until you can have it fixed.

SOUTH BEND ELKS TO VISIT ELKHART

Local Lodge Members to be Guests of Elkhart Chapter Tonight.

About 50 Elks will drive to Elkhart Wednesday evening to visit the Elkhart lodge.

The members will leave the Elks temple here at 6:30 o'clock this evening and will drive to Elkhart where a special program of entertainment will be given. Plans are being arranged for a picnic next month for the members of the South Bend B. F. O. E. A committee composed of E. F. McErlain, A. P. Honor and P. O. Hogan was appointed to decide upon a good place for holding the picnic and the committee is to make a decision sometime today. This will be the first picnic given by the Elks since before the war.

Milkweed has for ages been known for its medicinal qualities.

NOTRE DAME PRESS CLUB INVITES MAC

Humorist to be Guest at Banquet Thursday—No Classes
Tomorrow Morning.

The Notre Dame glee club will leave South Bend at 2:45 o'clock Wednesday afternoon for Kalamazoo, Mich., where the organization sings Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus. A dance will follow the concert, and the club will spend the night in Kalamazoo, returning to the university at noon Thursday.

The feast of Corpus Christi will be observed Thursday by a high mass at 8:15 o'clock. Classes will be suspended in the morning, but will be resumed in the afternoon. J. P. McEvoy, newspaper humorist, former student at Notre Dame and reporter on The News-Times, will be the guest of honor at a banquet in the Hotel Mishawaka Tuesday evening given by the Press club of the school. Dr. John Cooney and other prominent men of the university will deliver addresses at the banquet.

Announcement of a dance in Chicago under the auspices of the Loyola club at Notre Dame for the evening of June 10 appeared on the campus Monday. The affair is designed for the entertainment of students who will stop a day in Chicago en route to their homes after the closing of school on June 9.

The most fortunate of the student body attended a dance at St. Mary's college Tuesday evening as the guests of the girls of the neighborhood school.

The Philosophers' baseball club, under the guidance of Aristotle Mehre, will engage in mortal combat with the nine representing DuSartre hall on the latter's diamond Wednesday afternoon.

The Memorial numbers of the Scholastic will be the last issued by the regular staff this season. The final number will come out June 4 as the product of the brains and workmanship of the sophomore journalists.

The annual tennis tournament began Tuesday in the gymnasium courts. Edward Pfeiffer won the event last year, but will receive stiff competition from his mates on the informal tennis team, which represents the school before again receives the honor of school champion.

Saboski Says Wife Untrue; Asks Court to Give Decree

Charging that his wife has left him home and is living in common law relationship with other men, Joseph Saboski, 1327 W. Ford st., brought suit for a divorce in the superior court Tuesday, for a divorce from Carrie Saboski. The couple were married September 13, 1910, at Jersey City, N. J., and separated July 5, 1913. The plaintiff asserts that his wife for the past four years has been living with another man and that he believes she is now residing in New York city.

DEATHS

MRS. C. CASE.

Mrs. C. Case died at the home of her niece, Miss Sodie R. Baker, 725 E. Cedar st., at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning after a six months' illness of a complication of diseases.

The deceased was born in South Bend June 27, 1897 and made it her home all of her life.

She is survived by one son, Richard Case, living in Chicago.

The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Baker, Rev. Gordon will officiate.

MRS. JOHN CRITCHLEY.

Word has been received in South Bend of the death of Mrs. John Critchley. She passed away May 11 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Churchill at Darling Lake, Nova Scotia. Mr. and Mrs. Critchley resided west of South Bend for many years, the former being superintendent of the Summit farms. Mrs. Critchley was only at home with her parents two weeks. She leaves her husband, one son, John, Jr., her parents and a number of sisters. Burial took place near her old home.

LIGHTNING FIRES STABLE AT SINGER PLANT; LOSS $3000

Three Firemen Overcome by Smoke While Fighting
Flames in Hayloft.

Lightning striking the ventilator in the southwest corner of the Singer Mfg. Co. stable, Olive and Division sts., started a fire, which for a few minutes threatened to destroy adjoining factory buildings and several houses in the vicinity. The lightning struck about 8:30 o'clock, and in less than five minutes flames had eaten their way through the roof of the building and down into the hay and straw. It is believed the entire loss will not exceed $3,000. Despite the fact that 19 head of horses were in the stable on the first floor of the barn, employees of the factory discovering the fire managed to rescue them before the flames had reached the first floor.

Three firemen: Lieut. Percy Alford of the chemical company, John Stoney, plumber on Trunk No. 2, and Stanley Dworecki, member of the chemical company, were overcome by smoke while fighting the blaze in the hay loft. Lieut. Alford and Pipeman Stoney, however, were revived after they had been carried from the building, but Dworecki was removed to the Central fire station in the police ambulance and Dr. J. H. Cannon was called. It is believed, however, that Dworecki will be able to resume work in a few days.

Lightning Strikes Barn.

According to the story told by Edward Rupe, night watchman, he had just completed making his inspection of the barn, and had started across the yard to an adjoining building when the lightning struck. Looking up he said he saw a ball of fire and in the next instant the roof of the building was sounding.

He said he immediately sounded the factory fire whistle and then with the assistance of other employees of the factory, he proceeded to rescue the horses and mules. By the time he reached the barn, he said, the Central ambulance and sprinkler was already spraying water on the hay and straw, which was enveloped in flames.

With the sounding of the whistle, Fire Chief Sibel and the men stationed at the Central department made an exceptionally fast run to the factory, despite the storm which was raging at that time and the unusually slippery condition of the pavements. Fire companies Nos. 4 also responded to the alarm. The firemen had little difficulty in checking the spread of the flames and the entire blaze was kept in the hay loft.

The firemen's difficulty did occur, however, when the partially burned bales of hay and straw began to send forth clouds of smoke. The smoke barrage was so thick that it drove all of the firemen from the loft for a few minutes, but after they succeeded in snatching a few breaths of fresh air the again made their way into the building.

It was on this second trip into the building that the trouble between the firemen and the horses was realized. Luckily their brother firefighters seeing them collapse, immediately carried them from the building.

Fire Loss $3,000.

The police ambulance, in charge of Sgt. Luther and Officer Legowski, which made the trip to the factory, when the fire first broke out and which returned to the police station when the officers saw the blaze was not serious, was again rushed to the scene to care for the stricken firemen.

The fire fighters were aided in their work by the members of the five companies of the fire department of the Singer company. These men worked under the direction of Chief S. A. DeVries and R. D. Kuespert, assistant chief of the department.

According to Thomas H. Walling, who has charge of the stables, the loss to the company will reach nearly $2,000, which is covered by insurance. Besides the 1,500 bales of hay and straw which were ruined by fire and water, the entire second floor of the barn will have to be repaired. Several hundred dollars worth of feed and harness, which was located in the annex of the stable, was also destroyed by fire and water.

City in Darkness.

A fire in the saw-dust collecting system of the Singer plant Tuesday afternoon, while causing very little damage, halted work in the entire factory for about one-half hour, when all of the suction fans were turned off. Friction is said to have been the cause of the blaze.

When lightning struck the stable at the Singer plant the city was practically in darkness, a transformer having burned out that control the current in the business section of the city. Repairs were made quickly, however, despite the heavy rainfall.

Showers Tuesday morning and last night proved to break the heat wave that has swept the city for several days, causing the mercury to fall several degrees. Farmers report the downpour as worth thousands of dollars, because of the relief to growing crops, which were on the verge of suffering because of the dry condition of the soil.

BOY INJURED IN MACHINE MISHAP

Elmer Bells, seven years old, 613 S. Chapin st., was painfully injured late Tuesday afternoon when he was struck by an automobile driven by O. A. Jackson, 2772 W. Calvert st. He suffered a cut on the left side of his forehead and was bruised about the face, besides being internally injured. The police ambulance, in charge of Sgt. Luther and Officer DeVos, removed the boy to the Epworth hospital.

According to the story related to the police officers by Mr. Jackson and other witnesses, the lad was playing in the middle of Indiana avenue, and ran into the rear fender of the Jackson car as it rounded the corner from Chapin street. Mrs. Jackson and Walter Watts, 2100 Prairie avenue, were in the machine with Mr. Jackson when the accident occurred.

LAPORTE CO. COURT QUITS UNDER FIRE

Finding of Accountants and Grand Jury Quiz Given as Resignation Cause.

Special to The News-Times.

LAPORTE, Ind., May 24.—The entire board of county commissioners, composed of Frank Travis, Robert Hanson and E. J. Clites, resigned under fire Tuesday, the result of an investigation into county affairs, which has been in progress for several weeks. Although the resignations created but little surprise in political circles here, they were the direct result of findings said to have been made by employees of the state board of accounts, sent here by the state to investigate alleged irregularities.

Immediately after the resignations were submitted in circuit court, a new commissioners' court was appointed, of which J. B. Shick, Perkins and Justin Loomis, farmers, are the members.

What action will be taken by the grand jury, which is now in session here and to which the report of the accountants was made, is a matter of speculation here. The investigation is the result of rumors that have been current here for several months, and the report of the state authorities to the grand jury is believed to have prompted the resignation of the commissioners Tuesday.

Mismanagement of funds and alleged illegal procedure in awarding contracts are two reasons advanced for grand jury action against the resigned commissioners. Thousands of dollars have been paid back to the county within the last few weeks as a result of contracts let by the board and which were held illegal. The commissioners based their resignations upon public criticism of their work.

CITY JUDGE TREATS COPS DRIVE LIGHTLY

Jurist Gives Punchboard Operators Minimum Fine—
Drops 'Hints.'

That Judge Gilmer was not swept off his judicial perch by the police drive against the alleged punchboard operators was manifested in city court Tuesday morning when he gave two defendants the minimum penalties and announced that it was not his policy to deal too zealously with them when they have been allowed to operate in the open for three years then not be taken into court without warning.

Whether his verdict in that cases heard was a slightly draped hint to the police that they should go after "big game" instead of picking on less harmless punchboard devices is a matter of speculation. The majority of the defendants were met by city court baristers before they were arraigned and through counsel pleaded not guilty. Two of them escaped however and were treated with extreme leniency by the court.

Harry Abbott, 1026 E. Indiana av., was first arraigned. He pleaded guilty. In answer to Judge Gilmer's questions, he said he operated two punchboards. One of these was purchased from an agent in Goshen and the other from a man in the employ of the Bailey-Clear Co. in this city, he testified. He was fined $25 and costs. The fine was ordered suspended on the payment of the costs.

Mike Kemble, 192 E. Jefferson, proprietor of a food store, pleaded guilty to running a candy and jewelry board. He was given $25 and costs, the minimum fine.

Along with the punchboards confiscated these two men had about 25 pounds of candy seized in the raid. The court ordered this turned over to the Orphans' home.

Harry Brillion, 234 N. Michigan st., operator of a pool room and arraigned on the charge of keeping gambling devices, pleaded not guilty. His case was set for May 28.

Maybe the Child-Mother Would Have Use for Cow

Special to The News-Times.

ELKHART, Ind., May 24.—The 14-year-old mother, who last week deposited her five-day-old baby on the doorstep of the David M. Click home here and fled, has made herself known to the family and taken the baby back. It was learned by Tuesday that the Clicks, who are childless, had decided to adopt the baby. During the time that they cared for the infant, Click, who is a state manager for the Co-Operative League of America, received many offers to give the child a home, including one from South Bend. Two farmers in different points in Michigan wrote, offering to bring a cow to the Clicks to provide milk for the waif.

Purdue University Agent
On Inspection Tour Here

Miss Grace King, of the Purdue University extension department, Lafayette, Ind., spent Tuesday in St. Joseph county in the interests of the girls home project work. She is enrolling girls in sewing, canning, baking, home keeping, cottage, cheese and butter making departments. At present there are 125 girls enrolled in the county project work, and according to Miss King, a number are enrolling in boys project department, that of raising chickens. They are being encouraged in this work.

Try NEWS-TIMES Want Ads

For the Summer Camp!

Camp Stoves, Camp Outfits,
Camp Chairs, Camp Cots

South Bend Awning Co.

115-17-19 W. Colfax

STATE LOAN CO.

Capital $50,000.00

$10 to $300

No endorser, no charges, no interest in advance, lowest rates, monthly or quarterly payments, lenient in time of misfortune—this is the way we take care of our customers. Main 1746.

State Loan Co.

Established 1905.
Sole Merchants Bank Bldg.
231 S. Michigan St.

PHONE CHANGED

CALL
M. 7-0-9

Private Exchange Connecting All Departments

DRY CLEANING
RUG CLEANING
HEMSTITCHING
PLEATING

231 EAST TUTT ST